CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LX—JULY-DECEMBER, 1944

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AAAS at Cleveland, 195
Accelerated Marking Time, E. N. COOPER, 381
ACE, Project for "Social-Security Education," 211; Organizes a Canada-United States Committee on Education, 275; Recommends Steps in Developing Audio-Visual Programs, 357
ACPA Survey of Postwar Planning by Institutions of Higher Education, 189
Adams, Sir John, Shade of, TEXTBOOK PUBLISHER, 333
ADERHOLD, O. C., and W. A. STUMPF, Georgia Studies Its Problems, 446
Adult-Education, Some Guiding Principles in, C. E. HOWELL, 31; Indiana University and Butler University to Co-operate in, 390
AFT Considers the Problem of Postwar Compulsory Military Training, 131
"Air Age," Education for, B. H. PETERSON, 282
Alabama Forms an Educational-Survey Commission, 7
ALBJERG, V. L., Teachers Should Take Their Own Examinations, 238
ALEXANDER, C., How Many Pupils?, 62
ALGCU, 58th Annual Convention of the, 260
American, Council on Education Studying Conscription, 132; School of the Air Begins Its 15th Year of Broadcasts, October 9, 214; President Roosevelt on, Education Week, 228; 59th Annual Meeting of the, Historical Association, 388
ANDERSON, P. B., Reading the Motion Picture, 12
Antioch College Institute on Conditions for an Enduring Peace, D. H. SMITH, 223
Armed Forces, Design for General Education for the, 181; Intelligent Disbanding of Our, C. S. VAN DEUSEN, 299; Random House Offers a Contest for Members of the, 375
ARMOUR, R., College in the Church, 315
Army Testing Program, Walter V. Bingham Reports on the, 276
Attendance, Statistics of, in American Universities and Colleges, 1944, R. WALTERS, 402
Audio-Visual: Use of Motion Pictures in Presenting University Offerings, N. FENTON and M. V. MILLER, 187; ACE Recommends Steps in Developing, Programs, 357
Austria's, Danish Folk High School for, Youth, 359
Award, Fourth Annual Delta Pi Epsilon Research, 70; Pi Lambda Theta, for Research, 1944–45, 262; Fellowships and Other, Offered in the Social Sciences, 310; Edward L. Bernays, in White-Negro Relations, 311

B[AGLEY], W. C., "Manpower Shortage" May Soon Shift from War and Industry to Education, 4; "For Distinguished Service in the Interpretation of Higher Education," 19; Important Project of the Illinois Association of School Boards, 22; Walter Albert Jessup, 1877–1944, 36; Western Reserve University's New Plan for the Education of Teachers, 37; Vocational Education as the Key to "Occupational Democracy," 52; New York City Public Schools Base "Promotion" on "Social Maturity," 67; Leaders of Public-School Education Over the 10-Year Period, 1926–35, 86; The 100,000 Teachers in the Armed Forces as Related to Postwar Shortages, 100; Good Handbook of Composition—and an Aside anent Textbooks in General, 109; Congress to Study the Effect of the War on the Higher Institutions, 117; Reiterating the Need of Priority in the Demobilization of Teachers, 131; National "Go-to-School" Drive, 132; Interdependence of Business and Education, 148; Significance of Effective Publicity for the Lower Schools, 149; Why Has Coeducation Been Abandoned in the Soviets' Middle Schools?, 151; Louisiana Moves Forward, 166; Social Status of the Public-School Service, 180; American Education Fellowship's 8-Point Program, 197; Nazi Influence on the French Schools during the Occupation, 198; Egypt Moves toward Universal Literacy, 215; "Frank Cody: A Realist in Education," 221; Quality of Campaign Appeals as a Measure of Progress, 229; Alfred E. Smith's Record in the Promotion of Public Education, 243; Present and Future of Latin and Mathematics in Secondary Education, 259; Walter V. Bingham Reports on the Army Testing Program, 276; John Dewey, Vigorous at Age 85, Defends Progressive Education, 292; Trustees of the University of Texas under Fire, 308; Little Homily on the Possible Uses of Ignorance, 326; Attitude of President Hutchins toward Vocational Education, 339; "Conservation Education" Particularly Significant in Wartime, 356; "GI Joe" on Compulsory Peace-Time Military Training, 389; Editorial Comment on a Reader's Comment, 415; SCHOOL AND SOCIETY Completes Its 60th Volume, 439
BARKER, C. S., Maryville "College Maids" Go to War, 127
Batting for Bode, M. C. OTTO, 433
BECKER, H. R., Guiding Rural Youth, 143
BECKLEY, D. K., Some Requisites for Accelerated Education, 92
BEEDE, M., Survival of Liberal Education: A Comment, 396
Beers, Jessica E., and the Elmwood School, E. M. UNDERWOOD, 171
BERG, M., Satellite Conformity with the "New Order" Education, 28
BERGEL, K., What Should Be the Allies' Policy toward German Postwar Education, 367
Bingham, Walter V., Reports on the Army Testing Program, 276
BLAKE, W. D., Accelerated Programs in the Postwar Small College, 155
Bode, Professor, and Liberal Education, J. PILLEY, 177; Batting for, M. C. OTTO, 433
Bombs Didn't Close the British Schools, E. S. HOLBECK, 273
Boston University Plans for Postwar Problems, 294
Boy-Scout, Progress of the, Movement, Especially in Rural Areas, 230

CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LX—JULY-DECEMBER, 1944

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AAAS at Cleveland, 195
Accelerated Marking Time, E. N. COOPER, 381
ACE, Project for "Social-Security Education," 211; Organizes a Canada-United States Committee on Education, 275; Recommends Steps in Developing Audio-Visual Programs, 357
ACPA Survey of Postwar Planning by Institutions of Higher Education, 189
Adams, Sir John, Shade of, TEXTBOOK PUBLISHER, 333
ADERHOLD, O. C., and W. A. STUMPF, Georgia Studies Its Problems, 446
Adult-Education, Some Guiding Principles in, C. E. HOWELL, 31; Indiana University and Butler University to Co-operate in, 390
AFT Considers the Problem of Postwar Compulsory Military Training, 131
"Air Age," Education for, B. H. PETERSON, 282
Alabama Forms an Educational-Survey Commission, 7
ALBJERG, V. L., Teachers Should Take Their Own Examinations, 238
ALEXANDER, C., How Many Pupils?, 62
ALGCU, 58th Annual Convention of the, 260
American, Council on Education Studying Conscription, 132; School of the Air Begins Its 15th Year of Broadcasts, October 9, 214; President Roosevelt on, Education Week, 228; 59th Annual Meeting of the, Historical Association, 388
ANDERSON, P. B., Reading the Motion Picture, 12
Antioch College Institute on Conditions for an Enduring Peace, D. H. SMITH, 223
Armed Forces, Design for General Education for the, 181; Intelligent Disbanding of Our, C. S. VAN DEUSEN, 299; Random House Offers a Contest for Members of the, 375
ARMOUR, R., College in the Church, 315
Army Testing Program, Walter V. Bingham Reports on the, 276
Attendance, Statistics of, in American Universities and Colleges, 1944, R. WALTERS, 402
Audio-Visual: Use of Motion Pictures in Presenting University Offerings, N. FENTON and M. V. MILLER, 187; ACE Recommends Steps in Developing, Programs, 357
Austria's, Danish Folk High School for, Youth, 359
Award, Fourth Annual Delta Pi Epsilon Research, 70; Pi Lambda Theta, for Research, 1944–45, 262; Fellowships and Other, Offered in the Social Sciences, 310; Edward L. Bernays, in White-Negro Relations, 311

B[AGLEY], W. C., "Manpower Shortage" May Soon Shift from War and Industry to Education, 4; "For Distinguished Service in the Interpretation of Higher Education," 19; Important Project of the Illinois Association of School Boards, 22; Walter Albert Jessup, 1877–1944, 36; Western Reserve University's New Plan for the Education of Teachers, 37; Vocational Education as the Key to "Occupational Democracy," 52; New York City Public Schools Base "Promotion" on "Social Maturity," 67; Leaders of Public-School Education Over the 10-Year Period, 1926–35, 86; The 100,000 Teachers in the Armed Forces as Related to Postwar Shortages, 100; Good Handbook of Composition—and an Aside anent Textbooks in General, 109; Congress to Study the Effect of the War on the Higher Institutions, 117; Reiterating the Need of Priority in the Demobilization of Teachers, 131; National "Go-to-School" Drive, 132; Interdependence of Business and Education, 148; Significance of Effective Publicity for the Lower Schools, 149; Why Has Coeducation Been Abandoned in the Soviets' Middle Schools?, 151; Louisiana Moves Forward, 166; Social Status of the Public-School Service, 180; American Education Fellowship's 8-Point Program, 197; Nazi Influence on the French Schools during the Occupation, 198; Egypt Moves toward Universal Literacy, 215; "Frank Cody: A Realist in Education," 221; Quality of Campaign Appeals as a Measure of Progress, 229; Alfred E. Smith's Record in the Promotion of Public Education, 243; Present and Future of Latin and Mathematics in Secondary Education, 259; Walter V. Bingham Reports on the Army Testing Program, 276; John Dewey, Vigorous at Age 85, Defends Progressive Education, 292; Trustees of the University of Texas under Fire, 308; Little Homily on the Possible Uses of Ignorance, 326; Attitude of President Hutchins toward Vocational Education, 339; "Conservation Education" Particularly Significant in Wartime, 356; "GI Joe" on Compulsory Peace-Time Military Training, 389; Editorial Comment on a Reader's Comment, 415; SCHOOL AND SOCIETY Completes Its 60th Volume, 439
BARKER, C. S., Maryville "College Maids" Go to War, 127
Batting for Bode, M. C. OTTO, 433
BECKER, H. R., Guiding Rural Youth, 143
BECKLEY, D. K., Some Requisites for Accelerated Education, 92
BEEDE, M., Survival of Liberal Education: A Comment, 396
Beers, Jessica E., and the Elmwood School, E. M. UNDERWOOD, 171
BERG, M., Satellite Conformity with the "New Order" Education, 28
BERGEL, K., What Should Be the Allies' Policy toward German Postwar Education, 367
Bingham, Walter V., Reports on the Army Testing Program, 276
BLAKE, W. D., Accelerated Programs in the Postwar Small College, 155
Bode, Professor, and Liberal Education, J. PILLEY, 177; Batting for, M. C. OTTO, 433
Bombs Didn't Close the British Schools, E. S. HOLBECK, 273
Boston University Plans for Postwar Problems, 294
Boy-Scout, Progress of the, Movement, Especially in Rural Areas, 230

BRECHBILL, H., "Passing All Pupils": Another Comment, 425
BRICKMAN, W. W., A Compendium of Contemporary Education, 426
BRODY, A., Responsibility for Accidents in School Transportation, 175; Newer Phases of Americanization, 207
BROWNELL, B., Montana Study, 397
Bureaucracy, Education: Antidote for, E. J. JOHNSON, 385
BURKHART, J. A., New Teaching Techniques in the College Classroom, 235
Business, Interdependence of, and Education, 148
Butler University, Indiana University and, to Cooperate in Adult Education, 390

Campaign, Oberlin College Institutes Lectures on, Issues, 230
CAMPBELL, R. F., School Board and Local Government, 27
Canada, Has Been Able to Retain University Standards in Wartime, 54; ACE Organizes a, -United States Committee on Education, 275
Catholic, Roman, Group Opposes Peacetime Compulsory Training, 437
Centenary Junior College, 75th Anniversary of, 198
Changing Character of Education, F. PRAGER, 227
Chicago, Placement Tests Replace High-School Credits at the University of, 6; University of, Reports on Its New Undergraduate Program, 342
CHIDESTER, A. J., In What Year Was G. Stanley Hall Born?, 420
Child, Woods Schools' 11th Institute on the Exceptional, 260; Mooseheart (Ill.) Laboratory for, Research, 358; Serious Postwar, -Labor Problem Predicted, 387
China's, "Double Ten," Fourth of July, 103
Chinese, Study of, at the University of Southern California, 311
Church, College in the, R. ARMOUR, 315
Civil Liberties, President Day Launches a Campaign on Behalf of, 83; Edward L. Bernays, Lectures at Cornell University, 213
Claremont Colleges, Graduate School of, 438
Classicist, Creed of a, N. T. STEINLAUF, 423
Classicists, New York City Meeting of the, L. B. LAWLER, 428
CLAUDEL, C., Importance of French Culture, 301
Coeducation, Question of, at the University of Florida, 214
COLE, M. I., Geography for the Air Age, 14
College, Accelerated Programs in the Postwar Small, W. D. BLAKE, 155; Entrance Tests of 1944–45, 292; in the Church, R. ARMOUR, 315
COLLIER, MRS. E. R., Boston University Youth Looks at the Peace, 158
Columbia University, New "Columbiana Society" at, to Collect War Records, 182; Sponsors a Study of India's Postwar Needs, 415
Community and Its College: Planning for a New Co-operation, R. M. MORRIS, 250
Compulsory Military Service: Junior-College Reactions, W. C. EELLS, 45; Universal Military Training a Probable Source of Early Postwar Controversy, 117; AFT Considers the Problem of Postwar, 131; American Council on Education Studying Conscription, 132; Should We Have, for All Youth?, T. DIAMOND, 305; Compulsory Military Training, G. E. SNAVELY, 369; Some Implications of Compulsory Military Training, L. P. TODD, 371; "GI Joe" on Compulsory Peace-Time Military Training, 389; Three University Presidents on Compulsory Peacetime Military Training, 412; George F. Zook Speaks for the ACE on Peacetime Compulsory Military Training, 436; Roman Catholic Group Opposes Peacetime Compulsory Training, 437
Conference, Working, on Postwar Adult-Education Problems, May 17–18, 14; Annual Curriculum, at Peabody College, July 26–27, 21; Inter-American, -Demonstration on Physical Education, 38; on Rural Education, the University of Chicago, August 21–25, 68; Second Annual Stanford University, on the Humanities, 68; Fifth, on Science, Philosophy, and Religion, September 7–11, 99; South-Wide, on the Humanities at Vanderbilt University, 118; School Broadcast, to Be Held in Chicago, October 23–24, 133; New York State Educators Hold a Guidance, 150; Bucknell University's 19th Annual, on Education, 261; White House, on Rural Education, 340; The 1944, of Deans of Southern Graduate Schools, 358; on Inter-American Relations at Immaculate Heart College, 373; of the Ohio College Association, 374; Midwestern College Art, 413
Conferences, Regional, on Collegiate Schools of Nursing, 150; Regional High-School, Planned for Illinois, 278; AAUW Initiates, on Policy-Making Posts for Women, 293; on the Teaching of Spanish and Portuguese, 373
Congress to Study the Effect of the War on the Higher Institutions, 117
Congressional Study of Higher Education, 179
CONKLIN, E. G., Vocational Education and "Occupational Democracy," 237
"Conservation Education" Particularly Significant in Wartime, 356
"Consider Your Verdict," R. WITHINGTON, 321
Contest, Random House Offers a, for Members of the Armed Forces, 375
COOPER, E. N., Accelerated Marking Time, 381
Co-operative, Specialization in Graduate Study as an Aid to Peace, 101; NYU and the, School for Teachers Plan a Joint Program, 415
Cornell University Will Add a Year to Its Postwar Engineering Curricula, 325
Counseling the Returning Veteran, W. K. LAYTON, 209
Cowley, W. H., to Become a Professor of Education at Stanford University, 341
Credo, P. M. SYMONDS, 161; "Program"—Apropos Professor Symonds's, E. O. SISSON, 303
Creed of a Classicist, N. T. STEINLAUF, 423
Criticism of the Point of View Expressed in "Passing all Pupils," H. G. SHINEMAN, 266
CROSS, E., Honest Linguists, Racketeers, and the Innocent Public, 284

DAIN, A. G., Selection of Accelerated Students, 125
Dario, Ruben: Story of a Library, 295
DAVIS, C. O., Allen Sisson Whitney: An Appreciation, 350
Defense of Progressive Education, W. A. YAUCH, 65
Degree, George Washington University Offers the "Associate in Arts," 20; Another Proposal for "Reforming the Ph.D.," 150
Delinquency, Plan to Curb Postwar Juvenile, 212
Demilitarized Border, G. H. NELSON, 129
Democracy, Schools as Citadels of, G. D. STODDARD, 49; Vocational Education as the Key to Occupational, 52; Wanted: Educational Statesmen in a, L. W. KLINE, 193; Vocational Education and Occupational, E. G. CONKLIN, 237

DENT, H. C., Training Tomorrow's Teachers in Britain, 162
Dewey, John, Vigorous at Age 85, Defends Progressive Education, 292
DIAMOND, T., Should We Have Compulsory Military Service for All Youth?, 305
Doctoral Training of Recently Starred Scientists, S. S. VISHER, 316
DORWART, H. L., Mathematics—Queen and Handmaiden, 241

EAKER, J. G., Educational Planning for the Veterans in Kansas, 393
Education, Outlook for Liberal, G. E. SNAVELY, 1; "Manpower Shortage" May Soon Shift from War and Industry to, 4; Junior College in Defense of Liberal, S. B. KING, JR., 17; Satellite Conformity with "New Order," M. BERG, 28; in the Philippines a Precedent in Educational Reconstruction, M. M. WOOD, 43; Vocational, as the Key to "Occupational Democracy," 52; Poll of Opinion on Primary Objectives of Public-School, 53; Leaders of the Public-School, over the 10-Year Period, 1926–35, 86; Some Requisites for Accelerated, D. K. BECKLEY, 92; Theological, Comes to Aid of Farm, 119; Interdependence of Business and, 148; Philosophy in, W. B. THOMAS, 156; Veterans', Program, 164; Congressional Study of Higher, 179; Design for General, for Armed Forces, 181; ACPA Survey of Postwar Planning by Institutions of Higher, 189; American, Fellowship's 8-Point Program, 197; ACE Project for "Social Security," 211; Changing Character of, F. PRAGER, 227; Alfred E. Smith's Record in the Promotion of Public, 243; Survival in: A Comment on Chancellor Malott's Paper, W. C. RUEDIGER, 253; New York State Boards of, Look Ahead, C. B. MOORE, 269; ACE Organizes a Canada-United States Committee on, 275; for the "Air Age," B. H. PETERSON, 282; W. H. Cowley to Become a Professor of, at Stanford University, 341; Conservation, Particularly Significant in Wartime, 356; Buttress the Peace with, R. M. SHAW, 380; Antidote for Bureaucracy, E. J. JOHNSON, 385; Survival of Liberal,: A Comment, M. BEEDE, 396; 1945 As a Centennial Year in the History of, W. C. EELLS, 419; Comment on N. Y. Federation of Labor's Report, M. WOLFSON, 445
Educational, Alabama Forms an, Survey Commission, 7; Television as an, Force, W. MINER, 115; NEA's Recommendations for the, Use of Surplus War Materials, 181; Relative, Standing of the 48 States, R. M. HUGHES, 190; Wanted: Statesmen in a Democracy, L. W. KLINE, 193; Postwar, Needs as Seen by the NEA, 308; Westinghouse Forms a New, Department, 309; United, Service Organized in Rochester, N. Y., 341; Level of Veterans and Postwar Enrollments, E. V. HOLLIS, 353; Planning for the Veterans in Kansas, J. G. EAKER, 393
EELLS, W. C., Compulsory Military Service?—Junior-College Reactions, 45; 1945 As a Centennial Year in the History of Education, 419
Egypt Moves toward Universal Literacy, 215
Emeriti, Dean Seashore Proposes "Visiting Research Professorships" for, 196; and Other Animals, J. L. MERIAM, 285
Emerson and War, A. LEWIS, 97
Engineering Education after War, R. WALTERS, 77
EQ vs. IQ: A Rejoinder, H. G. JOHNSON, 254
Ethics of Good Workmanship, L. GRAY, 113
ETOXINOD, S., Physical-Education Debacle: A Major Pedagogical Mystery, 337

Farm, Theological Education Comes to Aid of, 119
Fellowships, New, in Health Education Now Available, 37; and Other Awards Offered in the Social Sciences, 310
FENTON, N., and M. V. MILLER, Use of Motion Pictures in Presenting University Offerings, 187
FINNER, P. F., Concerning the Centennial of Granville Stanley Hall, 30
Foreign Students and Their Knowledge of English, J. C. MAJOR, 251
French, Nazi Influence on the, Schools during the Occupation, 198; Importance of, Culture, C. CLAUDEL, 301
Funeral Oration for the Late Progressive Educator, K. C. PRATT, 76
FURNESS, E. L., Carleton Beals on Latin America, 108; "A History of Latin America for Schools," 444

Gay's, [R. M.], "Reforming the Ph.D.": A Comment on Mr., Proposal, W. C. RUEDIGER, 333
George Washington University, Offers the "Associate in Arts" Degree, 20; New Graduate Courses in Government at the, 244
Georgia Studies Its Problems, O. C. ADERHOLD and W. A. STUMPF, 446
GERE, G. E., Student Loans in Time of War, 75
Germany: Satelite Conformity with the "New Order" Education, M. BERG, 27; Emerson and War, A. LEWIS, 97; Postwar Rehabilitation of European Research Libraries, L. S. THOMPSON, 289; "Consider Your Verdict," R. WITHINGTON, 321; Basic Causes of Our War with, 364; German Educational Policy for the Poles, 376
GHIGO, F., Class Hours for Social-Science Courses, 283
Government, Institute of, at the University of North Carolina, 244; New Graduate Courses in, at the George Washington University, 244
Grants-in-Aid for Studies in American History and Civilization, 438
GRAY, L., Ethics of Good Workmanship, 113
GROSS, J. O., "The Shape of Things to Come in 1918," 90

Hall, Granville Stanley, Concerning the Centennial of, P. F. FINNER, 30; In What Year Was, Born?, A. J. CHIDESTER, 420
HALL, G. M., Teacher-Education Remains the Sole Purpose of ISNU, 63
HARLOW, R. F., School Public-Relations Program, 145
HICKS, C. R., Buy Bonds, 426
History, Grants-in-Aid for Studies in American, and Civilization, 438
HOLBECK, E. S., Bombs Didn't Close the British Schools, 273
HOLLIS, E. V., Educational Level of Veterans and Postwar Enrollments, 353
Honduras, School of Pan-American Agriculture to Open in, October 12, 231
Honest Linguists, Racketeers, and the Innocent Public, E. CROSS, 284

HOWELL, C. E., Some Guiding Principles in Adult Education, 31
HUGHES, R. M., Relative Educational Standing of the 48 States, 190
Humanities: Outlook for Liberal Education, G. E. SNAVELY, 1; Junior College in Defense of Liberal Education, S. B. KING, JR., 17; New Type of Liberal-Arts Curriculum at Northwestern University, 54; Comment on Chancellor Malott's Paper, "Will Liberal Education Survive?," 157; Professor Bode and Liberal Education, J. PILLEY, 177; Liberal-Science Program of Purdue University, S. E. KNAPP, 318
HURD, A. W., Problems of Research versus Instruction—A Reverie, 330
HUTCHINSON, M. E., Wartime Language Program as Related to Postwar Language Teaching, 33

Illinois, Important Project of the, Association of School Boards, 22; University of, Plans an Enlarged Postwar Faculty, 295
Indiana University and Butler University to Cooperate in Adult Education, 390
India's, Columbia University Sponsors a Study of, Postwar Needs, 415
Inter-American, Education, F. A. VARRELMAN, 11; Activities in a College near the Mexican Border, A. H. HOLLE, 158
IQ, EQ vs.: A Rejoinder, H. G. JOHNSON, 254

Jessup, Walter Albert, 1877–1944, 36
JOHNSON, E. J., Education: Antidote for Bureaucracy, 385
JOHNSON, H. G., EQ vs. IQ: A Rejoinder, 254
JONES, M. M. W., Relationship between Reading Deficiencies and Left-Handedness, 238
Junior College, in Defense of Liberal Education, S. B. KING, JR., 17; Workshop at the University of Colorado, 21; Compulsory Military Service?—Reactions, W. C. EELLS, 45; Survey of Health and Physical Education in, 324

KANDEL, I. L., Henry W. Holmes on the Hope for Human Unity, 268
KEESLER, D. C., War Financing through the Schools, 94
KELLEY, T. L., The Passing of the PEA, 401
KING, S. B., JR., Junior College in Defense of Liberal Education, 17
KLINE, L. W., Wanted: Educational Statesmen in a Democracy, 193
KNAPP, S. E., Liberal-Science Program of Purdue University, 318

LAFFERTY, H. M., Postwar Schools: A Lesson in Fantasy, 257
LANGE, L. W., Co-ordination of Student-Personnel Services, 140
Language, Wartime, Program as Related to Postwar, Teaching, M. E. HUTCHINSON, 33; War and the, R. W., 41; Foreign, and the Army Program, 78; Middlebury College and the Army Method of Teaching, 79; Lessons from the Army, Courses, W. FRAUENFELDER, 123; Report on Foreign, 167; University of Illinois Reports on Its, -Teaching Program, 325
Latin, Corporation School Opens Its Technical Courses to, Americans, 246; Present and Future of, and Mathematics in Secondary Education, 259
Law, Change of Attitude toward, M. SMITH, 286
LAWLER, L. B., New York City Meeting of the Classicists, 428
LAYTON, W. K., Counseling Returning Veteran, 209
Leaders of Public-School Education over the 10-Year Period, 1926–35, 86
LEEVY, J. R., New Venture in Applied Sociology, 349
Left-Handedness, Relationship between Reading Deficiencies and, M. M. W. JONES, 238
Legislation: "Manpower Shortage" May Soon Shift from War and Industry to Education, 4; "Old North State" Scores Another "First" in Liberal, 6; "Area" Vocational Schools, 165; Louisiana Moves Forward, 166; Congressional Study of Higher Education, 179; NEA's Recommendations for the Educational Use of Surplus War Materials, 181
LEONARD, W. H., Professional Opportunities in Pharmacy, 331
Let's, Look Again at Our Colleges, R. T. OLIVER, 225; Be Better Subscribers, A. M. WITHERS, 365
LEWIS, A., Emerson and War, 97
Librarians, Shortage of Trained, Reported, 324
Libraries, Postwar Rehabilitation of European Research, L. S. THOMPSON, 289
Life Begins at Seventy, J. F. MESSENGER, 59
Loans, Student, in Time of War, G. E. GERE, 75
"Loyalty" and "Co-operation," A. M. WITHERS, 107

McNair Report on the Social Status of Teachers in England, 383
MAJOR, J. C., Foreign Students and Their Knowledge of English, 251
Malott's, Survival in Education: A Comment on Chancellor, Paper, W. C. RUEDIGER, 253
Man Who Would Educate His Son: A Fable, F. M. TEAGARDEN, 347
MART, J. M. N., Tolerance—Cultural and Racial, 124
Mathematical Association of America, Summer Meeting of the, 84
Mathematics,—Queen and Handmaiden, H. L. DORWART, 241; Present and Future of Latin and, in Secondary Education, 259
MEAD, A. R., Basic Causes of Our War with Germany, 364
MERIAM, J. L., Behind a Camouflage: A Comment on the "Simplicus-Perplexides" Dialogues, 205; Emeriti and Other Animals, 285
Meriam, Reply to Dr., W. W. PARKER, 206
MESSENGER, J. F., Life Begins at Seventy, 59
Mexico's Nation-Wide Program for School Expansion, 231
Michigan, New Two-Year "Basic College" at, State College, 20; New International Center at, State College, 414
Middlebury College and the Army Method of Teaching Languages, 79
MILLER, M. V., and N. FENTON, Use of Motion Pictures in Presenting University Offerings, 187
MILLIGAN, J. P., Philosophy for Administration, 334
MINER, W., Television as an Educational Force, 115
MITCHELL, F. T., Servicemen's Institute at the Michigan State College, 447
Montana Study, B. BROWNELL, 397
MOORE, C. B., New York State Boards of Education Look Ahead, 269
Mooseheart (Ill.) Laboratory for Child Research, 358
MOREY, L., Proposed Revisions of Federal Taxes as They Affect College Staffs, 3

MORRIS, R. M., Community and Its College: Planning for a New Co-operation, 250
Motion Picture, Reading the, P. B. ANDERSON, 12
Motion Pictures, Use of, in Presenting University Offerings, N. FENTON and M. V. MILLER, 187
MULFORD, H. B., Plan for Enlisting More Men in the Public-School Service, 443

National, Second Year of the, Nursing Council Program for Colleges, 119; 36th Annual Convention of the, Council of Teachers of English, 212; Oberlin College Faculty Presents a, Service Plan, 309
Nazi Influence on the French Schools during the Occupation, 198
NEA, Representative Assembly of the, at Pittsburgh, 51; Recommendations for the Educational Use of Surplus War Materials, 181; Postwar Educational Needs as Seen by the, 308
Negro, New Course on, Problems Financed by the General Education Board; 261; Edward L. Bernays Award in White-, Relations, 311
NELSON, G. H., Demilitarized Border, 129
New York, City Public Schools Base "Promotion" on "Social Maturity," 67; University of the State of, to Celebrate a Notable Centennial, 244; State Boards of Education Look Ahead, C. B. MOORE, 269
NOLLE, A. H., Inter-American Activities in a College near the Mexican Border, 158
North Carolina: "Old North State" Scores Another "First" in Liberal Legislation, 6; Has Doubled Teachers' Salaries in Ten Years, 213; Institute of Government at the University of, 244
Northwestern University's New Course in Home Administration, 183
Norway, Schools of, Carry on Despite Nazi-Imposed Handicaps, 70
Nurses, Interim Report of the Committee on the Recruitment of Student, 414
Nursing, Second Year of the National, Council Program for Colleges, 119; Opening the, Field to College Women, 278
NYU and the Cooperative School for Teachers Plan a Joint Program, 415

Oberlin College Faculty Presents a National-Service Plan, 309
Occupational, Vocational Education as Key to, Democracy, 52; Postwar, Wishes of Teachers and Students Now in Industry, J. PARK, 94; Vocational Education and, Democracy, E. G. CONKLIN, 237
Ohio College Association Studies Postwar Needs and Facilities, 69
OLIVER, R. T., Postwar Planning Cannot Ignore the Problems of Youth, 203; Let's Look Again at Our Colleges, 225
OTTO, M. C., Batting for Bode, 433
Outlook for Liberal Education, G. E. SNAVELY, 1
OWEN, W. V., Internal Affairs of Social Science, 219

PAINTER, W. I., and H. W. PAINTER, What of the Present?, 139
PARK, J., Postwar Occupational Wishes of Teachers and Students Now in Industry, 94
PARKER, W. W., Reply to Dr. Meriam, 206
"Passing All Pupils": Another Comment, H. BRECHBILL, 425
Peace, Co-operative Specialization in Graduate Study as an Aid to, 101; Boston University Youth Looks at the, Mrs. E. R. COLLIER, 158; Antioch College Institute on Conditions for an Enduring, D. H. SMITH, 223; Most Ingenious Paradox, L. V. SIMPSON, 300; Buttress the, with Education, R. M. SHAW, 380
Personnel, Institute on Student, Work, 5; Co-ordination of Student-, Services, L. W. LANGE, 140
PETERSON, B. H., Education for "Air Age," 282
Pharmacy, Professional Opportunities in, W. H. LEONARD, 331
Phi Beta Kappa, Senate of, R. WALTERS, 429
Philippines, Education in the, a Precedent in Educational Reconstruction, M. M. WOOD, 43
Philosophy, of the Progressives, J. E. WISE, S.J., 81; in Education, W. B. THOMAS, 156
Physical Education, Suggested "Keep-Fit" Program for Schools and Colleges, 245; Survey of Health and, in Junior Colleges, 324; Debacle: A Major Pedagogical Mystery, 337
PILLEY, J., Professor Bode and Liberal Education, 177; Reply to Professor, I. N. THUT, 395
Plant Science, More Liberal Introductory, J. F. STANFIELD, 60
Poles, German Educational Policy for the, 376
Poll, of Opinion on the Primary Objectives in Public-School Education, 53; of Public Opinion as to Teachers' Salaries, 356
PORTERFIELD, A. W., Comment on Chancellor Malott's Paper, "Will Liberal Education Survive?", 157; Should Teachers Take Their Own Examinations, 424
Portuguese, Conferences on the Teaching of Spanish and, 373
Postwar, Wartime Language Program as Related to, Language Teaching, M. E. HUTCHINSON, 33; Rural Education and the Home Front, 37; Education in the Philippines a Precedent in Educational Reconstruction, M. M. WOOD, 43; Ohio College Association Studies, Needs and Facilities, 69; Engineering Education after the War, R. WALTERS, 77; Report of the Midwest Committee on Education and, Reconstruction, 84; Some Requisites for Accelerated Education, D. K. BECKLEY, 92; Occupational Wishes of Teachers and Students Now in Industry, J. PARK, 94; The 100,000 Teachers in the Armed Forces as Related to, Shortages, 100; Universal Military Training a Probable Source of Early, Controversy, 117; AFT Considers the Problem of, Compulsory Military Training, 131; What of the Present?, W. I. PAINTER and H. W. PAINTER, 139; Accelerated Programs in the, Small College, W. D. BLAKE, 155; Information Exchange, Inc., 167; ACPA Survey of, Planning by Institutions of Higher Education, 189; Planning Cannot Ignore the Problems of Youth, R. T. OLIVER, 203; Plan to Curb, Juvenile Delinquency, 212; Schools: A Lesson in Fantasy, H. M. LAFFERTY, 257; Class Hours for Social-Science Courses, F. GHIGO, 283; Rehabilitation of European Research Libraries, L. S. THOMPSON, 289; Boston University Plans for, Problems, 294; University of Illinois Plans an Enlarged, Faculty, 295; Intelligent Disbanding of Our Armed Forces, C. S. VAN DEUSEN, 299; Most Ingenious Paradox, L. V. SIMPSON, 300; Importance of French Culture, C. CLAUDEL, 301; Should We Have Compulsory Military Service for All Youth?, T. DIAMOND, 305; Educational Needs as Seen by the NEA, 308; Oberlin College Faculty Presents a National-Service Plan, 309; "Consider Your Verdict," R. WITHINGTON,

321; Dean William F. Russell Urges the "Re-education of Americans", 323; Cornell University Will Add a Year to Its, Engineering Curricula, 325; Educational Level of Veterans and, Enrollments, E. V. HOLLIS, 353; Serious, Child-Labor Problem Predicted, 387; Educational Planning for the Veterans in Kansas, J. G. EAKER, 393; Columbia University Sponsors a Study of India's, Needs, 415; Enrollment in Institutions of Higher Learning, S. E. THOMPSON, 430; University of Kentucky Considers, Problems, 437
PRAGER, F., Changing Character of Education, 227
PRATT, K. C., Funeral Oration for the Late Progressive Educator, 76
Present, What of the, W. I. PAINTER and H. W. PAINTER, 139
PRESSEY, S. L., New Type of Record-Advisory System, 110
Price Control and Teachers' Purchasing Power in 1943–44, 277
Progressive Education, Coronet to Feature Discussions pro and con, 19; Defense of, W. A. YAUCH, 65; Funeral Oration for the Late Progressive Educator, K. C. PRATT, 76; Philosophy of the Progressives, J. E. WISE, S.J., 81; John Dewey, Vigorous at Age 85, Defends, 292
Progressive Education Association: American Education Fellowship's 8-Point Program, 197; Passing of the, T. L. KELLEY, 401
Proposed Revisions of Federal Taxes as They Affect College Staffs, L. MOREY, 3
Public, Two Short Courses in, Relations, 5; Poll of Opinion on the Primary Objectives of, -School Education, 53; New York City, Schools Base "Promotion" on "Social Maturity," 67; Leaders of, -School Education Over the 10-Year Period, 1926–35, 86; School, -Relations Program, R. F. HARLOW, 145; Social Status of the, -School Service, 180; Plan for Enlisting More Men in the, -School Service, H. B. MULFORD, 443
Publicity, Significance of Effective, for the Lower Schools, 149; "House Organ" of a Public-School System Serves as a, Release, 198
Pupils, How Many?, C. ALEXANDER, 62

Radio: American School of the Air Begins Its 15th Year of Broadcasts, October 9, 214; New, Program of the Association of the Junior Leagues of America, 375
Random House Offers a Contest for Members of the Armed Forces, 375
Reading, Relationship between, Deficiencies and Left-Handedness, M. M. W. JONES, 238
Record-Advisory System, New Type of, S. L. PRESSEY, 110
REED, H. B., Stoddard's "The Meaning of Intelligence," 188
Relationship between Reading Deficiencies and Left-Handedness, M. M. W. JONES, 238
Relative Educational Standing of the 48 States, R. M. HUGHES, 190
Report of the Midwest Committee on Education and Postwar Reconstruction, 84
Research, Fourth Annual Delta Pi Epsilon, Award, 70; Pi Lambda Theta Awards for, 1944–45, 262; Problems of, versus Instruction—A Reverie, A. W. HURD, 330; Mooseheart (Ill.) Laboratory for Child, 358
ROUCEK, J. S., "Race and Rumors of Race," 142
RUEDIGER, W. C., Superior Teacher, 29; Survival in Education: A Comment on Chancellor Malott's Paper, 253; "Reforming the Ph.D.": A Comment on Mr. Gay's Proposal, 333; "Three Score and Ten": A Second Report, 421
Rural Education, and the Home Front, 37; Conference on, the University of Chicago, August 21–25, 68; First White House Conference on, 229; White House Conference on, 340
Rush-Bagot Agreement: Demilitarized Border, G. H. NELSON, 129
Russell, Dean William F., Urges the "Re-education of Americans," 323

St. Francis College (Lafayette, Ind.) to Occupy New Site, 87
Salaries, North Carolina Has Doubled Teachers', in Ten Years, 213; Poll of Public Opinion as to Teachers', 356
Scholarships, Library, and Assistantships at the University of Illinois, 358
SCHOOL AND SOCIETY: "For Distinguished Service in the Interpretation of Higher Education," 19; Completes Its 60th Volume, 439
School, Important Project of the Illinois Association of, Boards, 22; Board and Local Government, R. F. CAMPBELL, 27; as Citadels of Democracy, G. D. STODDARD, 49; Study of Pupil Participation in, Management, 85; Public-Relations Program, R. F. HARLOW, 145; Significance of Effective Publicity for the Lower, 149
Science, Liberal-, Program of Purdue University, S. E. KNAPP, 318
Scientists, Doctoral Training of Recently Starred, S. S. VISHER, 316
Seashore, Dean, Proposes "Visiting Research Professorships" for Emeriti, 196
Selection of Accelerated Students, A. G. DAIN, 125
Servicemen's Institute at the Michigan State College, F. T. MITCHELL, 447
Sex-Education Workshop, 294
"Shape of Things to Come in 1918," J. O. GROSS, 90
SHAW, R. M., Buttress Peace with Education, 380
SHINEMAN, H. G., Criticism of the Point of View Expressed in "Passing All Pupils," 266
Simplicus-Perplexides, Behind a Camouflage: A Comment on the, Dialogues, J. L. MERIAM, 205
SIMPSON, L. V., Most Ingenious Paradox, 300
SISSON, E. O., "Program"—Apropos of Professor Symond's "Credo," 303
SMITH, D. H., Antioch-College Institute on Conditions for an Enduring Peace, 223
SMITH, M., Change of Attitude toward Law, 286
Smith's, Alfred E., Record in the Promotion of Public Education, 243
SNAVELY, G. E., Outlook for Liberal Education, 1; Compulsory Military Training, 369
Social, Status of the Public-School Service, 180; ACE Project for, -Security Education, 211; Internal Affairs of, Science, W. V. OWEN, 219; Class Hours for, -Science Courses, F. GHIGO, 283; Fellowships and Other Awards Offered in the, Sciences, 310
Sociology, New Venture in Applied, J. R. LEEVY, 349
Soviets', Why Has Coeducation Been Abandoned in the, Middle Schools?, 151
Spanish, Conferences on the Teaching of, and Portuguese, 373
STANFIELD, J. F., More Liberal Introductory Plant Science, 60
Statistics of Attendance in American Universities and Colleges, 1944, R. WALTERS, 402

STEINLAUF, N. T., Creed of a Classicist, 423
STODDARD, G. D., Schools as Citadels of Democracy, 49
Student, An Institute on, -Personnel Work, 5; Interests or Educational "Politics," G. WAKEHAM, 74; Selection of Accelerated, A. G. DAIN, 125; Co-ordination of, -Personnel Services, L. W. LANGE, 140
STUMPF, W. A., and O. C. ADERHOLD, Georgia Studies Its Problems, 446
Superior Teacher, W. C. RUEDIGER, 29
Survey, Alabama Forms an Educational, Commission, 7; ACPA, of Postwar Planning by Institutions of Higher Education, 189; of Health and Physical Education in Junior Colleges, 324
SYMONDS, P. M., Credo, 161

Taxes, Proposed Revisions of Federal, as They Affect College Staffs, L. MOREY, 3
Teacher, -Education Remains the Sole Purpose of ISNU, G. M. HALL, 63; Shortage in Pennsylvania, 261
Teachers College (50th Anniversary): Dean William F. Russell Urges the "Re-education of Americans," 323
Teachers, Western Reserve University's New Plan for the Education of, 37; University of Kansas Aids, 87; The 100,000, in the Armed Forces as Related to Postwar Shortages, 100; Reiterating the Need of Priority in the Demobilization of, 131; Should Take Their Own Examinations, V. L. ALBJERG, 238; Price Control and, Purchasing Power in 1943–44, 277; Poll of Public Opinion as to, Salaries, 356
Teaching, New, Techniques in the College Classroom, J. A. BURKHART, 235
TEAGARDEN, F. M., Man Who Would Educate His Son: A Fable, 347
Television as an Educational Force, W. MINER, 115
Tests, Placement, Replace High-School Credits at the University of Chicago, 6; College Entrance, of 1944–45, 292
Texas, Trustees of University of, under Fire, 308
Theological Education Comes to Aid of Farm, 119
THOMAS, W. B., Philosophy in Education, 156
THOMPSON, L. S., Postwar Rehabilitation of European Research Libraries, 289
THOMPSON, S. E., Postwar Enrollment in Institutions of Higher Learning, 430
"Three Score and Ten": A Second Report, W. C. RUEDIGER, 421
THUT, I. N., Reply to Professor Pilley, 395
TODD, L. P., Some Implications of Compulsory Military Training, 371
Training Tomorrow's Teachers in Britain, H. C. DENT, 162

United Educational Service Organized in Rochester, N. Y., 341
Use of Motion Pictures in Presenting University Offerings, N. FENTON and M. V. MILLER, 187

VAN DEUSEN, C. S., Intelligent Disbanding of Our Armed Forces, 299
VARRELMAN, F. A., Inter-American Education, 11
Veterans: "Manpower Shortage" May Soon Shift from War and Industry to Education, 4; Engineering Education after War, R. WALTERS, 77; Plans for Education of, Go on Apace, 101; Follow-Up on Plans for the Education of, 134; Education Program, 164; Educational Level of, and Postwar Enrollments, E. V. HOLLIS, 353; Educational Planning for, in Kansas, J. G. EAKER, 393
VISHER, S. S., Doctoral Training of Recently Starred Scientists, 316
Visual Aids: Reading the Motion Picture, P. B. ANDERSON, 12; Television as an Educational Force, W. MINER, 115; Use of Motion Pictures in Presenting University Offerings, N. FENTON and M. V. MILLER, 187
Vocational, Education as the Key to "Occupational Democracy," 52; "Area," Schools, 165; Education and "Occupational Democracy," E. G. CONKLIN, 237; Attitude of President Hutchins toward, Education, 339

WAKEHAM, G., Student Interests or Educational "Politics"?, 74
WALTERS, R., Engineering Education after the War, 77; Statistics of Attendance in American Universities and Colleges, 1944, 402; Senate of Phi Beta Kappa, 429
Wanted: Educational Statesmen in a Democracy, L. W. KLINE, 193
War, "Manpower Shortage" May Soon Shift from, and Industry to Education, 4; and the Languages, R. W., 41; Schools of Norway Carry on Despite Nazi-Imposed Handicaps, 70; Student Loans in Time of, G. E. GERE, 75; Financing through the Schools, D. C. KESSLER, 94; Emerson and, A. LEWIS, 97; Congress to Study the Effect of the, on the Higher Institutions, 117; Maryville "College Maids" Go to, C. S. BARKER, 127; NEA's Recommendations for the Educational Use of Surplus, Materials, 181; Basic Causes of Our, with Germany, A. R. MEAD, 364; Commisssioner McNutt Praises Teachers and Students for, Work, 389
Wartime, Language Program as Related to Postwar Language Teaching, M. E. HUTCHINSON, 33; Canada Has Been Able to Retain University Standards in, 54; "Conservation Education" Particularly Significant in, 356
Westinghouse Forms a New Educational Department, 309
White House Conference, First, on Rural Education, 229; on Rural Education, 340
Whitney, Allen Sisson: An Appreciation, C. O. DAVIS, 350
WISE, J. E. (S. J.), Philosophy of the Progressives, 81
WITHERS, A. M., "Loyalty" and "Co-operation," 107; Let's Be Better Subscribers, 365
WITHINGTON, R., "Consider Your Verdict," 321
WOLFSON, M., Comment on the N. Y. Federation of Labor's Education Report, 445
Women, AAUW Initiates Conferences on Policy-Making Posts for, 293
WOOD, M. M., Education in the Philippines a Precedent in Educational Reconstruction, 43
Workshop, Junior-College, at the University of Colorado, 21; Sex-Education, 294
WYSOR, N., Guide through Bookland, 173

YAUCH, W. A., Defense of Progressive Education, 65
Youth, Boston University, Looks at the Peace, MRS. E. R. COLLIER, 158; Postwar Planning Cannot Ignore the Problems of, R. T. OLIVER, 203; Should We Have Compulsory Military Service for All, T. DIAMOND, 305